

> From: "Kirsten Whetstone" <KIRSTEN@parkcity.org>
> Date: July 7, 2004 12:53:22 PM MDT
> To: <algarda@attglobal.net>
> Cc: <psbro3@comcast.net>,"PATRICK PUTT" <PUTT@parkcity.org>
> Subject: Re: Treasure Hill project
>
> Thank you for the recent e-mail regarding the Treasure Hill project.
>
> I will forward a copy to the Planning Commission at the July 14 > meeting. I think your concerns are valid and I believe that the > planning process does include the flexibility to ensure that any > approved building volumetric/footprint/height, etc. parameters do > mitigate negative impacts on surrounding properties.
>
> At this July 14 meeting we will be discussing the expanded traffic > study as well as some of the externalities... noise, vibration, odor, > steam, delivery and service, loading and unloading areas, trash, etc.
> as well as getting a good understanding about the ownership and > management of the property into the future and during construction, >and the "environmental" issues of slope retention and topography.
>
> I understand that the visual modeling is taking quite some time and >we have scheduled this project for an August 11 Planning Commission > meeting to look at the building volumetric/architectural/site > planning issues.
>
> Thanks for staying in touch!
>